NINTH ANNUAL UC DAVIS EQUITY SUMMIT

RITUALS OF RESISTANCE

Tuesday, February 19, 2019
4–9 PM
UC Davis Conference Center | Davis, California

Join educators, community members and experts from a range of disciplines for this annual event that addresses the pertinent social issues of our time. The UC Davis Equity Summit coalesces people, ideas and institutions to deepen strategies, shape actions and create solutions:

- Connect with colleagues over dinner, refreshments and music.
- Be inspired by Social Justice Award winners.
- Create an action plan through in-depth discussions.
- Explore resources and book-signings with various award-winning authors at a curated pop-up book store.

Register by November 30 for early-bird pricing*
conferences.ucdavis.edu/equity

Students.....	$21
Individual Registration	$75
Team Table (nine people).....	$900

*Prices change to $40, $120 and $1,200 after November 30, and registration officially closes February 1.
*Proceeds from this event go directly to support youth services in Sacramento.
*A letter confirming attendance for professional development will be provided at the event for those requesting it.

KEYNOTE: Dr. Bettina L. Love

Dr. Love is an Associate Professor at the University of Georgia and the award-winning author of Hip Hop's Li'l Sistas Speak: Negotiating Hip Hop Identities and Politics in the New South. She is the founder of Real Talk: Hip Hop Education for Social Justice, an after school initiative aimed at teaching elementary students the history and elements of Hip Hop for social justice through project-based learning. Her latest book, We Want to Do More Than Survive: Abolitionist Teaching and the Pursuit of Educational Freedom, draws on personal stories, research, and historical events and offers a vision of educational justice inspired by the rebellious spirit and methods of abolitionists.
